Notes

PSY 392 is a seminar course that fulfills the capstone required to graduate with a psychology major. Students may select one of the following options to replace PSY 392:

- PSY 290 (for 3 credits as a prerequisite) and PSY 390 with the same faculty member. PSY 390 must be taken during senior year. Passing both courses is required to complete the capstone.
- PSY 291 (for 3 credits as a prerequisite) and PSY 391 with the same faculty member. PSY 391 must be taken during senior year. Passing both courses is required to complete the capstone.
- PSY 395 and PSY 398 (for 3 credits) taken the same semester during senior year. The 2 courses are connected and passing PSY 398 is required to pass PSY 395. Passing both courses is required to complete the capstone .
- HON 285/286 or PSY 290 completed with an Honors Contract (for 3 credits as a prerequisite) and HON 395A03 (for 3 credits) with the same faculty member and presenting the thesis research at the Psychology Department Honors Colloquium. HON 395A03 must be taken during the senior year. Passing both courses is required to complete the capstone.

Students may not register for more than a cumulative total of 17 hours of any combination of the following courses: PSY 287, PSY 290, PSY 291, PSY 292, PSY 299, PSY 390, PSY 391, PSY 398, or HON 395A03.

Not more than 16 hours of 100-level Psychology courses, or Psychology courses transferred from community colleges, may count toward the major
